Artistic Director

Amiti Perry received her BA in Dance from the University of North Texas ('98) and MFA in Choreography from Ohio State University ('06). Since returning to North Texas in 2012 from NYC, Amiti has been serving as dance adjunct at the University of North Texas' Department of Dance and Theatre. In addition to teaching technique and theory courses in the department, she has performed in faculty works, presented her choreography as a guest artist, and served as rehearsal director for guest artist works. Each year Perry accompanies faculty and students to American College Dance Association’s regional conference where she teaches master classes and is the stage manager adjudicated works from UNT. Perry is resident choreographer for musical theatre productions at Theatre at The Colony, under the direction of Dwayne and Ronda Craig, with whom she has worked for over 20 years. She also served as resident choreographer for Odysseyss Chamber Orchestra 2015-2017, under the direction of Jason Lim, presenting original choreography for Aaron Copeland’s Appalachian Spring, Arnold Schoenberg’s Verklärte Nacht (Transfigured Night), Op. 4, Igor Stravinsky’s L’Histoire du soldat (The Soldier’s Tale), as well as choreographed to original works by OCC composers. In 2006, Perry founded amp:dance/amiti perry + company in NYC, with whom she created, presented, and performed multiple new works in New York City and continues to present as a company in Texas.
ELLIE BAUDER
Ellie started dancing at the age of three. She continued to study dance and, at the age of ten, she was invited to dance with the Dance Industry performing arts company. Later, she was invited to attend summer programs with American Ballet Theater and Kansas City Ballet. At the age of fourteen, Ellie began dancing at the Allen Conservatory of Dance and performing with the Allen Civic Ballet. In 2018, Ellie began dancing with the UNT Department of Dance & Theatre. Subsequently, Ellie began teaching for the Allen Conservatory of Dance. Ellie is still teaching weekly dance classes. She is hopeful to explore more professional opportunities after her college graduation.

Special thanks to Joshua Edison

KIANNA DUGAN
Kianna “Keeks” Dugan, is 22 years old and from Watauga, TX. She started dancing just before she was 2 years old and has been dancing ever since. She is currently pursuing a degree in Dance Performance and Choreography, with a minor in Communication Studies. She has performed in the yearly productions, NCC (2017-2019) and the Faculty Dance Concert (2018, 2020) and this upcoming 2021 production. Kianna has also been a member of Chi Tau Epsilon, dance national honor society, for 4 years and is this year’s President. Outside of dance, Kianna enjoys spending time with her friends and family as much as she can. She enjoys swimming, hiking, singing and just about anything as long as her friends are there with her. After graduation, Kianna hopes to perform on a cruise ship dancing, singing, and acting, as well as act in films. After that, she will continue to dance and hopefully teach dance at a high school and coach the drill team. A huge thank you to Reyna Mondragon, Claudia Orcasitas, Michaela Trebing, and Amiti Perry for helping me through this difficult process. Without y’all my project would not be what is has come to be. I really appreciate all that you have done for me.
VICTORIA ESCALANTE
Victoria Escalante is from Houston, TX and currently pursuing her BA in Dance. She started dancing at the age of three and received her formal classical ballet training under the direction of Sheryl Rowland, Kelly Agnew, Trish King and Kerri Hawk. During her adolescence, Victoria had the pleasure of being a part of original choreographed works by Steve Brule, Alexa Daniele Fioroni Slaughter, and Sandra Oregon; along with performances at the Hobby Center and the Donald W. Reynolds Performing Arts Center. Currently Victoria is expanding her practice, incorporating Gaga dance techniques, experimental dance forms and pushing the boundary of what dance is. After she graduates this Spring, Victoria plans to continue dance while broadening her research of colonization within the art form and being an advocate for Brown and Indigenous people within the dance space.

Special thanks to all the beautiful gardens and their thorns

At UNT, she has performed in the New Choreographers concerts, Faculty Dance concerts, and ACDA. Upon graduation, she plans to audition for modern dance companies in New York City. Brynne would like to say thank you to her family, friends, coaches, and professors who have supported her love and passion for dance.
FAITH MATHIS
Faith Mathis is senior graduating in the spring of 2021 with a Bachelor of Science in Dance and a teaching certification. Faith started dancing in church at the age of 7, and it was there she grew a passion for dance, choreography, music and speaking. Over the past years, she has danced at several studios, with Movers Unlimited Dance Company, and has traveled to many states performing and competing in not only dance, but other aspects of performing arts. Once Faith graduates, she plans attend grad school to pursue her Masters in Business Management. From there, she plans to further her career in the performing arts world, sharing all she has learned through dance with where it all started for her, at church and soon open her own performing and visual arts school. Special thanks: Thank you to all of my beautiful dancers, my videographer, my mother, my G-ma and most importantly God.

BRIANNA PALOS
Brianna Palos is from Dallas, TX and has been dancing since she was six years old. She is currently pursuing her Bachelor of Arts degree majoring in Dance with Secondary Education Certification. She is a third-year member of the North Texas Dancers and serves as a squad leader. After graduation she plans to audition for pro teams and hopefully find a job as an assistant for a high school drill team.

Special thanks to her parents for always supporting her dreams and to the rest of her friends and family for always being by her side.

SANDIE PHAN
Sandie is a senior at the University of North Texas studying for her BA in Dance. Her freshman year, Sandie joined Choreo Block, a hip-hop dance team, and competed for three semesters. She has performed works by Rennie Harris and Vincent Hardy in past Faculty Dance Concerts. Sandie currently trains with an adult hip-hop dance team called The Neighborhood and teaches hip hop at Footlights Dance Studio. After graduating in the spring, Sandie plans to continue exploring dance film and plans to move out of state to pursue commercial dance.

Thank you to Andy Yu for collaborating with me on the music, to Mesha for helping my vision come to life, and to my wonderful cast for making my movement come to life.
CHRISTIAN QUINTERO
Christian Quintero is from Brownsville, TX, where he studied/competed in Ballroom dance for 8 years. He is currently getting a BA in Dance with a minor in Music. He enjoys the choreographic process and the sacredness in the connection shared between a choreographer and their dancers.

Special thanks to Brianna Palos, Gina Quatrino and Angel Salazar for their assistance in production.

VAL SANCHEZ
Valerie Nicole Sanchez is a student choreographer from Waco, Texas. She has studied various forms of dance for 18 years and is working towards receiving her Bachelor of Arts in Dance. Aside from performing in various NCC and FDC shows, she loves dancing anywhere from her kitchen to the Christmas aisle at Target. In her free time, she loves to bake for her friends, collect and binge read books, and craft little trinkets. After graduation, she plans to move to New York City in hopes of becoming an academic advisor for undergraduate students as well as freelancing dance projects and performances. Eventually, she hopes to continue her education abroad and celebrate life through dance.

She would like to extend her special thanks to her silly friends, all of the ears lent to her, and the clocks in her bedroom that read different times.

ALLIE SINDELR
Allie Sindelar is a senior at The University of North Texas and is pursuing a major in Dance and a minor in Kinesiology. She is from San Antonio, TX where she went to Kathy Marfin’s Dance School since the age of two and joined the competition team, The Leading Edge Dance Company, when she was nine. She won numerous awards while competing her solos and groups. Allie has now been dancing for 19 years and has studied ballet, pointe, modern, tap, jazz, hip hop, and tumbling/acro, as well as ballroom dancing. She is currently the treasurer of Dance Unit at UNT where she wants to integrate dance into the community and make it more accessible to everyone! Allie wants to pursue a career in dance after college because she loves the power dance can have to help people.

Special thanks to my loving family who helped me on this journey!
MICHELLE SMITH
Michelle Smith was born and raised in Houston, TX. For the past 17 years, she has trained in various styles of movement under several dance institutions including the High School of the Performing and Visual Arts, Theatre Under the Stars (TUTS), Dance Zone, Aldine Dance Company, and the Debbie Allen Dance Academy. She is double majoring in Dance and Fashion Merchandising at the University of North Texas and currently serves as a student ambassador for the UNT Dance Department.
